

Clinton Cemetery Map

The Clinton Cemetery Trust has been responsible for the administration of the Clinton Cemetery since about 1860.

Records up to 1909 were unfortunately destroyed by fire. There are some unknown graves because of this loss of records and also of those buried in what is known as Common Ground.

The Balclutha Genealogical Society has put together this record of names with the best information available to them. The names, along with the map below, are designed to assist you locate the final resting place of your loved ones.

The Clinton Cemetery Trust gives thanks to the Balclutha Genealogical Society to the dedication and detail they have provided towards these panels, and also to the Clinton Lions Club which constructed this kiosk.

